

Primljeno: 01.10. 2026.
Org. jed.	Broj	Prilog	Vrijednost
0102	6120/1

MEMORANDUM OF COOPERATION

BETWEEN

THE GEORGIAN NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
(ComCom)

AND

THE AGENCY FOR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS
AND POSTAL SERVICES OF MONTENEGRO
(EKIP)

ON ENABLING THE COOPERATION AND EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS AND OTHER REGULATED SECTORS

Budva, September 2026

The Georgian National Communications Commission (ComCom),

and

the Agency for Electronic Communications and Postal Services of Montenegro (EKIP), hereinafter referred to individually as “the Party” and collectively as “the Parties”, recognizing the sound relations of cooperation between the two Parties, recognizing the mutual interest in establishing cooperative relationships in the sectors of mutual interest), having regard to the fact that cooperation between the two Parties would contribute to the development of consistent regulatory practices in these particular areas, acknowledging that cooperation through the exchange of information in areas of mutual interest would benefit both Parties, being aware of the fact that such cooperation in the sectors of mutual interest facilitates the development of further relations between the Parties, wishing to develop and improve cooperation in the sectors of mutual interest, hereby agree on the following:

ARTICLE 1

Objective of Cooperation

(1) The main objective of this Memorandum of Cooperation is to establish a non-binding framework for cooperation and the exchange of information and experience between the two Parties in the regulation and monitoring of activities in the sectors of mutual interest, within the scope of their respective legal competences and in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of their respective jurisdictions. To this end, the Parties may carry out joint activities.

(2) The Parties anticipate that such cooperation will support the regulatory activities undertaken by both Parties with a view to promoting competition in the sectors of mutual interest and protecting end-users' interests.

ARTICLE 2

Areas of Cooperation

In order to enhance the institutional capacity of the Parties, cooperation may encompass areas within their respective competences that they identify as being of common interest, including:

- a. exchange of information and experience in the sectors of mutual interest;
- b. organization of joint seminars, conferences and forums, in the sectors of mutual interest.

ARTICLE 3

Scope of Cooperation

The Parties shall consult each other on issues of common interest and shall exchange experiences in the sectors of mutual interest at national and regional levels.

ARTICLE 4

Instruments of Cooperation

- (1) The instruments of cooperation between the Parties are as follows:
- a. exchange of non-confidential or non-classified information and professional documents resulting from the Parties' activities, to the extent permitted by applicable law;
 - b. organization of bilateral consultations, at both management and expert levels to examine technical, legal and other aspects of national regulatory activities;
 - c. establishment of contact points and communication mechanisms with a view to achieving the objective of this Memorandum of Cooperation;
 - d. participation in relevant events held in the two countries, including workshops, seminars and study visits;
 - e. informing each other of, and extending invitations to, international symposia and conferences organized under their auspices;
 - f. encouragement of the implementation of best regulatory practices in the sectors of mutual interest;
 - g. analysis of relevant case studies in the sectors of mutual interest;
 - h. other forms of collaboration mutually agreed by the Parties, based on the specific cooperation proposals, as an expression of future coordinated or joint actions of the Parties.

(2) The Parties intend to meet at least once every two years to assess progress, set priorities for cooperation for the following period and, where appropriate, consider new approaches to improving collaboration, including joint activities and potential synergies. The Parties may also, where appropriate and within the scope of their respective mandates, consult and, where mutually agreed, coordinate their views on matters of common interest addressed within European and other international organizations.

ARTICLE 5

Financial Issues

Each Party shall bear its own costs arising from the activities carried out under this Memorandum of Cooperation.

ARTICLE 6

Amendments

- (1) The Parties may amend this Memorandum of Cooperation at any time by mutual written consent.
- (2) Any such amendment shall form an integral part of this Memorandum of Cooperation.

ARTICLE 7

Resolution of Differences

- (1) The Parties intend to implement this Memorandum of Cooperation in good faith.
- (2) Any difference between the Parties regarding the interpretation or implementation of this Memorandum of Cooperation shall be resolved amicably through consultations between the Parties.

ARTICLE 8

Final Provisions

- (1) This Memorandum of Cooperation shall have an initial validity period of two years and shall take effect on the date it is signed by both Parties.
- (2) This Memorandum of Cooperation shall be automatically renewed for successive periods of two years unless either Party gives the other Party written notice of termination at least 30 days before the expiry of the then-current validity period.
- (3) Either Party may terminate this Memorandum of Cooperation at any time by giving written notice to the other Party. Termination shall take effect one month after the other Party receives the notice.
- (4) Upon termination, the Parties shall take appropriate steps to conclude any ongoing joint activities carried out under this Memorandum of Cooperation in an orderly and fair manner.
- (5) No provision of this Memorandum of Cooperation creates legally binding obligations for either Party.
- (6) This Memorandum of Cooperation is not intended to create any legally binding obligations under international law. It does not constitute an international agreement or treaty.

Signed in Budva on 28 September 2026.

On behalf of the Georgian National
Communications Commission
(ComCom)

Goga Gulordava
Chairman

On behalf of the Agency for Electronic Communications
and Postal Services of Montenegro
(EKIP)

Elvis Babačić
Acting Director

